

Fair pay for all: Lecturers and Traffic Wardens unite

Solidarity Rally

6pm • Tuesday 29 January • University College Union Student Union •
Lecture Theatre 505 • 5 floor • UCL • Maths • 25 Gordon Street

We have all suffered for over a decade a wage cut in real terms. Employers tell us the money is not there to pay us a decent living whilst their pay packets soar. Increasingly workers across different sectors are saying enough is enough!

are fighting back and share ideas on how to bust the Tory union ballot thresholds.

Further Educations colleges on the 29/30th January will start their second phase of strikes by taking two more days of strike action over pay. Traffic Wardens on the 4th February will enter their second phase of strikes to secure a decent living wage. In Higher Education seventy thousand workers across 143 Universities are being balloted for strike over pay.

Come to the meeting to show your solidarity, learn off those who

Called by UCU London region and Camden UNISON

Fair pay for all: Lecturers and Traffic Wardens unite

Solidarity Rally

6pm • Tuesday 29 January • University College Union Student Union •
Lecture Theatre 505 • 5 floor • UCL • Maths • 25 Gordon Street

We have all suffered for over a decade a wage cut in real terms. Employers tell us the money is not there to pay us a decent living whilst their pay packets soar. Increasingly workers across different sectors are saying enough is enough!

are fighting back and share ideas on how to bust the Tory union ballot thresholds.

Further Educations colleges on the 29/30th January will start their second phase of strikes by taking two more days of strike action over pay. Traffic Wardens on the 4th February will enter their second phase of strikes to secure a decent living wage. In Higher Education seventy thousand workers across 143 Universities are being balloted for strike over pay.

Come to the meeting to show your solidarity, learn off those who

Called by UCU London region and Camden UNISON